

Advocacy-Parent Navigation, Crisis Intervention

120 parents participate in training and receive support for a child newly diagnosed with a disability.

Buddy Club

50 pre-teens with I/DD participate in a Buddy Club.

Children's Services

250 children with developmental disabilities participate in summer day camps.

Family Well-Being

25 parents participate in financial stability workshops and receive Uber vouchers to access a food bank.

Benton Franklin Head Start

Social and Emotional Learning Program

447 early educators receive training on social emotional competency building skills for kids.

School-Based Mental Health Services

35 middle-schoolers work with a behavioral health clinician.

SERVING CENTRAL WASHINGTON

Parent Child Interaction Therapy

50 parents connect with a therapist to support skills that improve child behaviors.

Safe Space Kids

114 kids are in supportive childcare while their mothers attend support groups for victims of domestic violence.

After School Program

80 refugee and immigrant youth participate in after school programs.

Kids Crave Connection

37 kids are mentored at least 4 hours/month.

Pediatric Palliative Care

36 children with a terminal illness or chronic condition receive palliative care.

Ending the Silence

375 youth, school staff, families and community members receive education about child mental health and resources.

Resilient Parents Resilient Kids

136 parents participate in training that addresses the root causes of misbehavior in children who have experienced stress and trauma.

Healthy Food Access

7,360 locals receive nutrition education, Bite2Go weekend food supplies for students, and Mobile Market free food distributions also fill nutritional gaps for vulnerable children and adults.

Crisis Program

254 children, who are victims of crime, receive crisis intervention.

Rural Outreach for Access to Reading

200 kids and their parents/caregivers participate in rural reading access events.

Tri-Cities Diaper Bank

14,750 diapers will be distributed.

24,300 local kids and their caregivers will receive access to critical services.